NEW AIRFIELD UNDER CONSTRUCTION, EGYPT (S)

1. (TSR) On imagery of [] a new military airfield was identified 21 nautical miles (nm) north of Siwah and 40 nm east of the Egyptian/Libyan border. Uthman Airfield (BE []), which is in the mid-stage of construction, consists of a 3,000- by 40-meter runway, a parallel runway/taxiway, a 70- by 300-meter parking apron, four crossover links, and two end links. Twelve hangarettes are under construction—four in the early stage and eight in the mid-stage of construction (Figure 1). Also, there is an area which may be intended for four additional hangarettes. Five probable vehicle shelters were observed under construction.
